Feasibility of Prohibition.

R. M. White, Editor, Mexico, Mo.

Mexico, Mo., November 20, 1907.—Dear Sir: In your valuable paper of recent date, I have observed considerable discussion of the prohibition question, and you have a number of times editorially asserted that in the event of the adoption of prohibition in this city, there would still be abundant revenue to all city expenditures to continue to "make Mexico a City," but in no instance yet have I observed where you have pointed out any of these sources of revenue.

I beg therefore to draw your attention to certain facts. These facts are taken from the last annual statement made by the City of Mexico running from July 1st, 1906 to July 1st, 1907. However, before putting down the figures, it must be remembered that Mexico is a city of the third class, that it is controlled by a charter, as set by the Legislature for the control of cities of the third class, and as the basis of this legislation, we are controlled by the state constitution.

It is provided by section 11 of Article 10 of the Constitution, that taxes for city and town purposes may be levied on all subjects and objects of taxation, and the constitution further provides, "but the valuation of property for taxation shall not exceed the valuation of the same property in such town or city for state and county purposes." The same section continuing further provides that "in cities and towns having less than ten thousand and more than one thousand inhabitants, said rate of taxation shall not exceed fifty cents on the hundred dollar valuation."

It is seen therefore that the valuation of the property within the city for taxation cannot exceed the valuation made by the County Assessor, so that valuation for taxation in cities of the third class is fixed by the state.

According to the annual statement for the year above mentioned, the total valuation of all personal and real estate in the city is $1,159,000.00. Fifty cents on the one hundred dollars of this, provided every cent levied is collected, will amount to $579,500.00, but under the constitution and charter cities of the third class are not limited in their sources of revenue to property taxation.

By section 5507 R. S. 1896 the city has power and authority to levy and collect a license tax on almost every class of business. I mean by this such as merchants, restaurants, hotels, boot-shoes, insurance agents, real estate agents, carter, drags, job wagons, etc.

The city government has very liberally exercised the power of license taxation and license taxes for the same period amount to $3,251.55. This of course does not include dram-shop license. Including every other source for annual revenue, there will not be many more than four thousand dollars added to the above, so that we have as follows revenue from all sources excluding dram-shop license:

General taxation	$579,500.00
License or occupation tax	$3,251.55
From all other sources not including dram-shop license	$4,000.00
Total revenue of	$586,751.55

FIXED EXPENDITURES.

Salaries	$6,000.00
Water Rental	$3,845.00
Light Rental	$1,500.00
Street work and material (not including for paving)	$4,754.11

MEXICO TRANS VICTORIOUS.

Mexico High School and No. 14 won from their respective opponents by a Big Score.

The Mexico football team were victorious Thursday in their games at the Academy grounds, and each won by a heavy score. The first game played was between the Mexico High School and Moberly High School, the former winning by a score of 27 to 6. Moberly was an easy victim for Mexico, the local team playing their usual good game.

The second game played between the No. 14 and Kirksville High School was equally as good a game, and the score run up was 35 to 6. A large crowd greeted the players which was always an inspiration to any team. Mexico played hard ball out the whole game, but their out-look in every particular. Mexico has played well this year, losing but two games out of the eight they have played.

Touch downs were made by Jones, Dunlap, Hunter and Rotta. Bleckie, Hunter and Jones made some long runs, varying from fifteen to thirty yds.

The line up was as follows:
Hunter, right half.
Bleckie, full.
Jones, quarter and cap't.
Bleckie, right end.
Taylor, sub. end.

New York, Nov. 24.—According to a report received to-night, former President Grover Cleveland is again seriously ill at his home in Princeton. He is said to have suffered a relapse of the intestinal trouble which afflicted him last June.

The present attack, it is said, developed on Thursday last, and although several rest, Mr. Cleveland showed considerable improvement on Friday. Details of his condition could not be learned at his home to-night. Beyond an admission that "he was very ill and confined to his bed" no information was given out.

DANGER OF CATARRH.

Unless Properly Treated with Hyemex, Becomes Serious.

Catarrhal troubles are far more dangerous than they seem at first thought. If you have contracted this disease, it is important that you should get it cured as quickly as possible before any dangerous germ has time to multiply and cause the disease to become a permanent one.

The easiest, simplest, quickest, surest and cheapest way to cure catarrh is by the direct method, breathing Hyemex. This wonderful medicinal air treatment does not drug and irritate the stomach, but is breathed in, directly following and destroying all disease germs that may have been inhaled.

The general way in which Hyemex is sold by our leading druggists is the best evidence of their confidence in the treatment and all should follow it as to its curative properties. They agree to refund the purchase price to anyone whom Hyemex fails to cure. It is so simple and so safe in testing its healing virtues. A complete outfit costs but $1.00 if it helps you, not a cent if it does not do all that is claimed for it. Sold and guaranteed by

A Visit to the County Poor Farm.

On Friday afternoon several ladies visited the County Poor Farm. They were met at the door by Mrs. Williams, the wife of the Superintendent, and were invited into the sitting room. This room with its home made carpets, pictures, and clean, pleasant atmosphere, was a most interesting sight. Mrs. Williams was asked to give an account of the inmates and the following is the list, a boy fourteen years old with sound mind and body although when he entered he had a broken leg, he being the only one of sound mind and conscious of his surroundings. Mrs. Williams' mother heart went out to him, and she invited him to be in her family. She spoke of how industrious he was and how much she appreciated his help. He was at school one-half mile away and the visitors did not see him. The next one was blind, the next very old, one had an injured back, and there were three idiot brothers, an idiot colored man, an old lady, and a feeble minded old man.

We asked to see the inmates and Mrs. Williams ushered us through a wide hall into the dining room, both showing the neatness of the wife and daughter, then to the yard where the inmates house are. There are four houses and two rooms in each house. The inmates are all in the room of the old lady. She met us with a smile and hand shake. The furniture consisted of an iron bed and stove, the bare floor was very clean. She was given an orange and was asked if she liked pictures and the ladies promised to send her some. Her eyes were very much inflamed, she was injured in some way. Her face saddened as she talked and we could not help but feel sorry for her. She was a poor old mother, who deserved better treatment from her children. She has access to the home of Mrs. Williams and her clothes are mended by the sympathetic daughter. Adjoining her room was the room of an old man. He was at work so we left an orange on his table, and our attention was directed to the dishes used, a tin plate, fork, spoon, tin cup which were filled in the dining room and brought out to them. Some of the inmates twist the handles of the spoons.

Our way to the next house we saw two of the idiot brothers at a wood pile, one had an axe in his hand ready to split the wood and the other was crouched down near the fence. Oranges were given them by a lady, a little boy who was the other one, he thanked her and the other one by the fence said "good". They were asked what kind of wood they were splitting and one replied, "maple". At the next place we went we found a feeble minded man sitting in a chair. He was offered an orange but paid no attention to it until Mrs. Williams gave it to him, not a sound came from his mouth and light from his eyes. His head seemed very clean, cool. Another man was asleep in his bed in the room.

On the way to the next house, we were met by the idiot colored man. He expected his share of the oranges and was given one. He was asked by one of the ladies if he knew her, but he could not recall her name.

The next place was the room where they were confined, but they were only required to use it once. It was a rudely constructed affair of rough lumber. In the next room were two idiot sitters in chairs, one never leaving his chair. When given an orange he ate the outside and ate.

In the next room was another feeble minded man, and the unsatisfactory condition of the room was very noticeable although Mrs. Williams takes precautions to keep it clean.

Mrs. Williams was asked if the inmates could do anything. She said, they sometimes shucked corn, would bring fodder to the barn and drive the cows.

After the inspection of rooms we lingered awhile in the dining-room, and then started home. We wondered if they had anything on Thanksgiving for which to be thankful, if any thoughtful souls remembered God's bountifulness. We realized that Christmas should not pass without remembering them. Perhaps they have national moments and think of home and friends. The farm is only 2 1/2 miles from town and we wondered how many Christians ever brought a ray of sunshine there.

Some say why are they not sent to the various institutions as the Hospital for Insane, the Feeble-Minded Home, or Orphan's Home.

Well, shall we let them suffer while we are waiting for affairs to be adjusted? How many think they could be comfortable in case the winter is severe on a bare floor, no shades, and only a little coal stove to keep them warm.

A vision like this crosses our mind. A modern building with bath rooms where these unfortunate ones can be attended to physically with attendance to their mental state, for them, clean beds, nourishing food, and some occupations for the hand, a pleasant lawn with swings, hammocks and trees where God's poor can enjoy themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. Oriswell and daughter Miss Maude, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams, Sunday.

Tom O'Toole is still in the State of Iowa making temperance speeches. He will be back.

Col. Gray Hook will probably be Mexico's next Police Judge. Col. Hook's views on this local option business are about the proper paper.

Beautiful Mexico!
Beautiful paved streets!
Beautiful north side alley!
Beautiful—but say, listen. How about that water wagon that is sweeping over the country? Is it so hard to sweep down in Mexico and save souls of sinners from the brand of the burning? Let the good work go on. Let us pray.

Major Lawson Legg is back to Mexico from Kansas City to stay and will help make Mexico a city and vote the prohibition ticket.

Carl Sanford is home from Chicago on a visit. Carl likes Mexico and Mexico likes Carl. His sweetheart lives here and she's a peach.

James LeRoy Key is stepping around as gay as a boy with his first pair of red-top boots, with brass toes. It's a boy and tells the team at 8 pounds. LeRoy will probably name the young Democrat Election Day Key—a splendid name. Thanks to LeRoy for a mass of business letter.

Mexico is on the blink.

That good-looking young man, Mr. Norton Nelson, of the firm of Kemp & Norton has our thanks for favor. Norton is one of Mexico's leading clothing salesmen, has a happy home, a charming little wife, and is, or ought to be happy.

Dock Patton was here from Ladson, Ohio, Sunday. Dock always had an eye to business. He purchased a large upbeared corral guiding of the Joe Folk stripe from Adam Oldham at a long price and placed him in the hands of Jay Bennett for training. The horse's name is big like. He also purchased two fine cow dogs.

Curtis O. Bybee, who has been making his home in the west, is back to Mexico. They all come back.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Peck enjoyed a big Thanksgiving dinner with Col. and Mrs. Jim Ford, north of Mexico.

We wish to thank some kind friend for sending us a dime-and-pin. May the good Lord bless the donor.

Dr. Wm. Judd is now doing wonders with the eye ointment and says he will give $100 for a case of granulated eye that he cannot cure. No cure, no pay. Mike is sure with the goods.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Gass and daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Peck Sunday as was also Miss Ella Powell, of Mexico. A very elaborate dinner was served.

Col. John Thomas, a gallant knight of the stock and rule, is now the forerunner of the Intelligence. Mr. Joe Corcoran has resigned his position and gone to Columbia.

Born, Tuesday, Dec. 2, to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Griffin, a 10-pound boy. The sweet little thing will assist his father in handling mail on Rural Route No. 6.

Frank Weiland is home from Chicago, where he took a car of cattle that sold at $5.45. Frank says a big snow fall there a few days ago.

Joe Canterbury is dealing in hogs quite extensively nowadays. He is the proud owner of some whoopers and when he kills one he has promised to send us a mass of back-bones.

Col. Jim Young is traveling agent for Dr. Mike Judd's eye ointment. Jim is a good man and has an eye to business.

We are trying to arrange a date for Mr. David Holloper, of Mexico, late of Spokane, Washington, to make a temperance talk at Hall of Hotel Waverly. In this talk to the vast multitude David will tell us the reason why he came back to beautiful Mexico.

Our friend, Wm. Vandenberg, of Mexico, made a social call Sunday, and he told us that the other day he had been to the pressure. Come again, Willie.

Miss Mary Stevens, of Mexico, is now chief operator in the Moberly telephone exchange. Miss Stevens is an accomplished young lady and will make good.

Dr. D. J. Kanaly gave a fancy dress ball Tuesday night and it was one continuous round of untold pleasure. The doctor is very gallant.

Thanksgiving Day we took dinner at the new Clarkson Hotel and it was a great treat. There is no more popular hotel in the state than the Clarkson Hotel. The hotel has been recently refitted and is to-day one of the best arranged hotels to be found in the Middle West. Mr. Campbell is very popular with our home people and the traveling public and enjoys a fine patronage.

The printers, as a rule, are exceedingly temperate and hardly ever stray from the straight and narrow way. Who ever heard of a printer falling by the wayside?

Have you ever had a heart to heart talk over the telephone? Try the experiment. It's great. Of course if you have a marble heart it won't work. For further particulars see J. LeRoy Key. He will explain the new system to you.

Col. Bob Muir, formerly of Mexico, now of Council Bluffs, Iowa, writes us that he is pleasantly located and doing well. He'll be back.

Hugh Donnelly, Jr., is now located at Richmond, California, and writes us he has a splendid position. He'll be back.

In Mexico going "dry" or will she continue to be "wet"? Will some kind friend tell me? We have always liked wet goods. It's a way we have. This much mooted question will be debated at the printer's Carnival on the evening of Dec. 4th.

Thanks to Mitchell White for several copies of the Denver Post. Last week he had a page in the Post illustrated. Mitchell is a chip of the old block and is rapidly turning to the right. He's all right. Say, friend Mitchell, send us a bottle of Rocky Mountain Tea, we are about half sick.

MISSOURI OFFERS AMBITIOUS YOUNG FARMERS AN OPPORTUNITY TO LEARN PRINCIPLES OF SCIENTIFIC AGRICULTURE DURING JANUARY AND FEBRUARY.

Eight Weeks Short Course in Agriculture Opens in Columbia January 2nd, 1908.

Every year an opportunity of almost priceless value is offered to the ambitious young farmers of every County in Missouri by the state College of Agriculture. This is the College of Agriculture.

The course presented by the eight weeks chance presented in January, to learn, under the help of the best educated specialists in the state, the fundamental principles of stock-raising, dairying, fruit-growing, soil and seed selection, and veterinary surgery, principles which one can otherwise acquire only after long and costly experience. Hon. H. J. Waters, Dean of the College of Agriculture, and Director of the Agricultural Experiment Station, said recently that the farmer, young or old, who should take advantage of this instruction would as a result save more money in the next year than the entire cost of taking the course. This cost need not exceed $50.00.

Give the farmer boy a chance. The people through their representatives in the Legislature have built up a great Agricultural College with magnificent buildings, fine equipment and first class teachers. This College is doing great things toward promoting the cause of Agriculture in Missouri. The greatest single thing it is doing is in making it possible for young farmer boys everywhere to receive the best possible instruction in the operations of the farm. Let the boys take advantage of this gift and profit by it. They will be better farmers by far and on the farm. They will learn practical lessons which they can immediately turn to account and, above all, they will learn that their profession, that of Agriculture, is the greatest of all and deserving of the greatest preparation as any other.

Reverently to salutes and political enemies of the Calliope Constitution returning says. Some of the more innocent of the temperance workers, have been astonished at finding champions of the saloons in places of official trust.

But this should not discourage the anti-saloon worker. It should only spur him on to redoubled efforts. It should serve to show how necessary it is that such a contaminating influence should be uprooted and exterminated. It has served to show that the interests of the people and those of the saloon are directly opposed. If the politician wants to take the side of saloons, let him. But he needs to be surprised if when the saloon goes out, he goes along with it.
